

Plan NOW to attend the 2006
WESTERN STATES EMS CONFERENCE CRUISE
October 22 ~ 30, 2006
8 day cruise aboard the
CARNIVAL SPIRIT

For 8 days you will be pampered aboard the beautiful floating resort CARNIVAL SPIRIT, while sailing along the Mexican Riviera. Your first of three fabulous destinations is Acapulco, Mexico's most glamorous resort city. Here you'll have from just past noon until after midnight to sun on the beaches, shop in the bazaars, marvel at the daring cliff divers and enjoy jet-set nightlife. More bargains, beaches, mariachi bands and lively cantinas await you in Zihuatanejo/Ixtapa and Manzanillo. Each of these ports also offers its own special natural wonders and historical attractions.

2006 WESTERN STATES EMS CONFERENCE CRUISE

October 22 ~ 30, 2006

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Featuring Presentations By:

Bryan Bledsoe, DO, FACEP, EMT-P

Dr. Bledsoe is a popular EMS conference speaker and author. A former EMT, paramedic, and paramedic instructor, he is an emergency physician with nearly 30 years experience in EMS and emergency medicine. Dr. Bledsoe is the author of 22 EMS books and numerous journal and magazine articles. He uses evidence-based medicine to look at current EMS practices and is known for presentations that include powerful visuals and emphasize group interaction.

Alice "Twink" Dalton, RN, MS, NREMT-P

Mrs. Dalton, more commonly known as Twink, is the Clinical Educator for Pridemark Paramedic Services in Boulder, CO. Twink began her emergency care career in 1974 as an emergency department nurse. She later served as faculty for Creighton University's Prehospital Education Program, Trauma Nurse Coordinator for St. Joseph's Hospital and in positions with Omaha Fire. Twink is a frequent presenter at conferences and has authored numerous articles and textbooks.

David Gilmore, MD

Dr Gilmore is Director of Toxicology and an Emergency Department Physician for St. Joseph Hospital in Denver, CO. He is also a member of the Faculty of the American Heart Association and is involved in an internet based continuing medical education company. Dr. Gilmore is a frequent presenter at conferences and is best known for his relaxed, humorous and challenging but easily understandable delivery of technical medical and toxicology topics.

Bob Page, NREMT-P, CCEMT-P

Mr. Page is an internationally known speaker, instructor, author and paramedic. His presentation experiences span North America and Europe. He is recognized for his energetic, humorous and motivational presentation style, where he takes ordinarily dry and hard to teach topics and transforms them into a fun learning experience. Bob calls this approach "Edutainment". He began his EMS career in 1978 and has nearly 30 years experience as an instructor.

Including Presentations By:

Brian Donaldson, EMT-P

Mr. Donaldson has served as an EMS provider at various levels of certification over the past 25 years. During the 1990's, he spent 6 years as a patrol officer and collision investigator for a municipal law enforcement agency. Brian is an Operations Supervisor for Western Eagle County Ambulance District in Eagle, CO and frequently presents topics at local, regional and state EMS conferences.

Fidel Garcia, EMT-P

Mr. Garcia began his EMS career in 1980 and has worked in both the public and private sectors. His experience includes 9 years as a flight paramedic and 12 years in emergency departments. He has been an educator since 1983 and is EMS Education Coordinator for St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Junction, CO. Fidel has been a frequent presenter at numerous conferences and symposia.

Troy Smith, LPN, NREMT-P

Mr. Smith is a Firefighter / Paramedic for Snohomish County Fire District #7 in Mill Creek, WA. He has been in the EMS and Fire Services for the past 14 years, during which time he has held various management positions. Troy also operates an EMS training and consulting company which focuses on emerging trends within the industry.
